

As a Senior Wealth Strategist with Precept Wealth Management, Lindsey draws on her extensive financial background working with a diverse clientele to pursue their financial goals. Her 16 years of experience have provided her with the knowledge and skills to understand not only the personal financial needs of her clients, but also the relevant trends that drive them. Prior to joining Precept Wealth Management in 2021, Lindsey spent 16 years working as a financial advisor at Edward Jones, JP Morgan Investments, and BBVA Investments.

Lindsey Campbell Redding
University of Houston - Clear Lake
BBA, Finance

As a Senior Wealth Strategist, Lindsey is eager to assess her clients' circumstances and provide individualized, highly strategic investment consulting. She guides her clients through each financial stage of their life using a goals-based process. Lindsey is dedicated to providing her clients with both the clarity and details necessary to achieve their financial goals.

Lindsey is married to Will Redding and together they have three children spread out between Texas A&M, middle school, and preschool. She enjoys spending her free time with her family and is often attending her children's various activities. She is a board member of the Choir & Theater booster club at her daughter's middle school and acting education as well as being actively involved in her church.

preceptwm.com
lredding@preceptwm.com
(281) 973-9290

19506 US 59 N
Ste 315
Humble, TX 77338